Denise Mills
FACILITATOR
FOUNDER & CHIEF MINDSET OFFICER, LEADERFUEL NOW

Honored as one of the most Influential Women in Kansas City, Denise Mills’ facilitation style is very conversational, experiential and interactive. She is passionate about issues surrounding women, leadership and life. She works with women (and men) to overcome stereotypes and cultural bias that limit their choices and reduce their effectiveness.

Her clients include organizations such as Toyota, Dupont, Honeywell, and the US State Department.

"The monthly leadership topics, the one-on-one consultation on the results of my self-assessment, and the Action Learning projects all helped me to grow as a leader. Thank you YWCA for this unique opportunity!"

Kim Savage
EVERGY

"Leadership is about making others better as a result of your presence and making sure that impact lasts in your absence."

Sheryl Sandberg
AUTHOR

"Women’s Leadership Momentum made me feel more confident. It allowed me to gain insight into other companies and complexities around leadership that I hadn’t found on my own."
